Facility Repairs

This summer, Triplett Wellman Contractors completed much needed repairs to the Aquatic Center's roof structure. This project brings us one step closer to addressing the moisture damage caused by the failed ventilation system, which was replaced last year. With this project completed, we have taken another step forward in our continuing effort to address deferred maintenance concerns.

Did You Know?

On July 23, 1827, Dr. Francis Lieber opened America's first swim school in Boston. Then-president, John Quincy Adams was one of the notables who visited and was one of the first to enroll.

Turn to page 7 for the full lineup of Woodburn's swimming lesson program.

General Pool Information

- The Aquatic Center is multi-programmed, with many activities occurring at the same time. Thank you for your understanding as we keep this facility meeting the varied needs of the community.
- August through February the aquatic center is host to High School Water Polo and Swim Teams practices, matches and meets. When we host the matches/meets the afternoon open swim and lap swim will be ending at 3:00pm. These events may also delay or cancel our evening 6:00pm programs. Please look on the side column of page 5 for specific dates of the matches or meets.
- Children under the age of six years old need to be accompanied by an adult at all times throughout the facility.
- Young children who are not toilet-trained need to be wearing a swim diaper. For your convenience we sell them at that aquatic center.
- Family is defined as: Parents with their own children. Grandparents with their children and grandchildren. Aunts and Uncles with their nieces and nephews.

In the early 1900's at some schools, in addition to lessons in archery, tennis and basketball there was instruction in swimming. Sometimes they learned to swim without any water or a pool by being hung from the ceiling in harnesses to practice arm movements and kicks! Also during this time Commodore Wilbert E. Longfellow recognizing a need started the Red Cross Lifesaving service. Our swimming lesson program is built on a tradition of recognizing the importance of learning to swim and uses the fundamentals developed by the American Red Cross. Look at what we are offering this fall and sign up now.

WATER EXERCISE CLASSES

Everyone is invited to participate – Read the descriptions to find what is best for you.

Aquarobics

Energize yourself with this invigorating workout! This fat-burning fitness workout incorporates muscular, cardiovascular and aerobic conditioning. Exercise includes some rhythmic activities, muscle strengthening and toning while having fun!

Arthritis Aquatic Class

The Arthritis Foundation Aquatic Program, A.F.A.P., is a recreational series of gentle activities in the pool and is open to anyone with arthritis or whom this time and presentation is best. The program is designed to help relieve the pain and stiffness caused by arthritis while providing a fun, social opportunity. It is not necessary to know how to swim. Trained personnel conduct sessions.

Deep Water Fitness

This class occurs in 6 ft of water and you do not need to be able to swim to participate. Foam buoyancy/support belts around the waist/hips and buoyant hand-held “dumbbells”, even noodles are used to keep you upright and your head out of the water. Zero joint impact with muscle toning and flexibility throughout the entire body is the goal.

Hip Flexibility

Deceptively gentle leg moves and stretches at the wall of the shallow end of the pool. Benefits include muscle and ligament toning, increased range of motion, resulting in more flexibility, better balance and coordination. The 20 additional minutes take place in the wading pool for some additional stretching and back extensor work and leg work.

PROJECT UPDATES

CENTENNIAL PARK

Work on the project to complete Centennial Park is scheduled for completion in early fall 2010. This exciting project completes improvements envisioned for Centennial Park from the time the City purchased the property in the mid 1980s. Included in this phase of work are many exciting amenities, including:

- 4th Baseball Field and Batting Cage
- Concessions/ Restroom Building
- Picnic Shelter
- Fenced Dog Park
- Concrete Basketball Court
- Accessibility Improvements to the Playground Area
- Nearly one Mile of Asphalt and Wood Chip Pathways
- Maintenance Building
- Drinking Fountains

The project also includes a significant amount of landscaping and irrigation improvements, including work to correct drainage problems that have existed on the northwest baseball field for many years. With these improvements in place, Centennial Park will even more effectively serve the Woodburn community's neighborhood and sports park needs.

MILL CREEK GREENWAY TRAIL

The Mill Creek Greenway Trail project has been under construction since fall 2009. The concept for the greenway trail system was formalized when the City Council adopted the Mill Creek Greenway Master Plan in 2006. At full build-out, the eight mile trail system will run along Mill Creek from the northern to the southern city limits. Two additional legs branch out to the east along Goose Creek (south of Woodburn high School) and Mill Creek's southwestern tributary.

The current project includes about  $\frac{3}{4}$  mile of new pathway. From Cleveland St (just east of Front St) to Wilson St, the pathway will be 8-12 feet wide and constructed of asphalt. From Wilson St to Deer Run St, the pathway will be 6 feet wide and constructed of crushed rock. The project includes many amenities, including, two trailhead parking areas, picnic tables, benches, trash receptacles, and dog waste stations. Work on the asphalt sections is scheduled for completion in September 2010, while permitting delays are holding up work south of Wilson St. We are hopeful that work in that project area will commence soon.

Please direct any project related questions to Jim Row, Community Services Director. Jim can be reached by email at jim.row@ci.woodburn.or.us, or phone at (503) 982-5265.

Message from the Manager

Autumn is a perfect time to visit the library. As folks start to head indoors, they start to think of books. Whether it's holiday books, cook books, craft books, or just something to read while you're curled up by the fire, we're sure to have the right choice for you.

Autumn also means back-to-school, and we want to remind folks that the Woodburn Public Library is homework central. We have computers, free wireless Internet, affordable printing, very current nonfiction books, a new nonfiction section just for high school students, and online databases that make homework a breeze.

If you know someone who uses Google to do her homework, she has to try our library database search tools. They're faster than Google and they're guaranteed to provide better quality results. Our librarians are always happy to show students and their parents how to use any of our tools and materials. Librarians can also help students develop strategies to make completing their homework assignments a breeze. Then your kids will have more time to read that hot new teen novel!

Sunday service resumes September 5th. To remind folks, we're open from 1-5 p.m. on Sundays during the Woodburn Public Schools academic year.

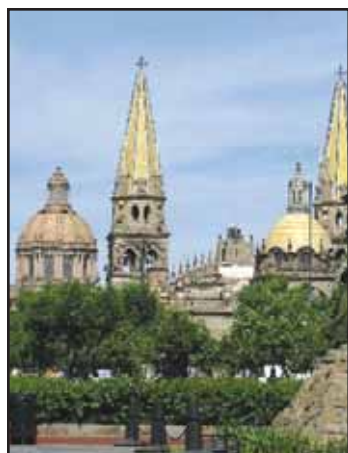

Our monthly book group continues into the fall. Selections can be found on our website, woodburnlibrary.org, or call 503-982-5252.

Finally, September is Library Card Sign-Up Month. To celebrate, anyone who shows their Woodburn library card at the Woodburn Memorial Aquatic Center on Thursday, September 30th will get a free admission!

JOHN HUNTER, LIBRARY MANAGER

Greetings from Guadalajara

As a part of my job as library manager, I buy the majority of the materials that are added to the library's adult collections. So I'm excited to be able to announce that I was awarded a scholarship from the American Library Association that makes it possible for me travel to the International Book Fair in Guadalajara, Mexico the last week of November. The FIL, as it's known, is the largest market for Spanish-language books in the world, and it is regularly attended by librarians from all over the United States. This is the first time a librarian from the Woodburn Public Library is able to attend.

Given the growth in the Spanish-speaking population in the past few decades, you might be surprised to learn that it is very difficult to buy a broad variety of books in Spanish in the U.S. So I will make almost all of our Spanish purchases at the FIL.

While our Spanish collection represents less than a tenth of our overall collection size, it is very popular with high school and college students who are learning Spanish, with patrons who speak English but find it much more comfortable to read in their original language, and with folks like me who have an interest in Latino culture. It also represents an important bridge for newer residents who wish to participate in that great American tradition: going to the library.

MEET YOUR NEW LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Library assistants have many duties, but they primarily assist patrons at the front desk with library card registration and checking out of materials. We recently hired two new library assistants; say hello the next time you're in the library.

Katey McKinley worked at the Chemeketa Community College Library while earning her degree. She grew up in the Willamette Valley and is excited to be back at work in a library setting.

Jennifer Mauer has a bachelor's degree from Pacific University and has plenty of library experience. She worked most recently at the circulation desk of the Silver Falls Library.

WOODBURN LIBRARY BOOK CLUB

The library's book club is going strong, but we're always looking for new members. The club offers an easy way to read some great books, exercise your mind, meet some fellow readers, and have fun! The discussions are free-flowing and very low pressure. Here are our autumn selections:

September 9:

All the Pretty Horses by Cormac McCarthy

October 14:

Nineteen Minutes by Jodi Picoult

December 9:

Their Eyes were Watching God by Zora Neale Hurston

We meet the second Thursday of every month at noon at the library. Copies of each book are available in advance for check out from the library. We always try and provide large print and audio versions when they are available. On the book club date, come to the library ready to talk about the characters, story, themes, and more. Since we meet at noon, you are welcome to bring your lunch. We always have enough coffee, pop, and delicious cookies for all. Call the Reference Desk at 982-5252 for more details.

YOUTH SERVICES PROGRAMS

12 2 17

Everything for Teens • Woodburn Public Library

Teen Space We've created a whole new space for teens. It's called 12-2-17, and it's full of the stuff you want. There's space for doing homework or hanging out. There aren't any little kids, and there aren't any adults hanging around either—it's only for teens.

You knew we had manga, but did you know that we also have animé? It's in the drawer in the Teen audiovisual section. The animé checks out for one week, and you have to have either a teen or adult library card. (Sorry 12-year-olds!)

We have a new Teen nonfiction section, and it's full of all the books you need to do your homework. If you don't find what you're looking for on the shelf, just ask a librarian. We're here to make your homework as easy as it can be, and we know a lot about how to do homework fast. BTW, ask us about our databases—they're way better than Google.

Finally, we promised a flat-panel TV, and it's just about here. No, we're not hooked up to cable, but look for haiku book reviews, teen-produced content, teen fiction scavenger hunts (with prizes!), and the 12-2-17 After-School Movie. Oh, and did we mention the wireless headphones? Check it out!
